Dear users of the TrainzDepot,

after our data loss last week we as the TrainzDepot-Team had to ask ourselves the question, how we're going to continue from now on. A full restore of the TrainzDepot as it was is unfortunately not possible, at least not one we can use in production again.

In the past we had already planned some changes and improvements, amongst other things we wanted to bring you news from the world of Trainz much quicker than before. Some of that was still in preparation when...
